Trusteeship

- Is about the college
- Is about the students
- Is about the community

A trustee’s job is not the same as your day job.

Effective Trustee Boards ensure their students are successful and their communities thrive

It is Service to Others above Self
A Few Simple Rules

- No surprises
- Listen more than you talk
- Listen carefully
- Beware of body language

Responsibilities

- Know your college’s numbers!
  - What percentage of students get a certificate or a degree in six years?
  - What is the data by gender, age and ethnic/race of your students?
  - What percentage of your students must take remedial classes in English and math?
  - What percentage of those get to college-level classes?
  - What percentage of your students receive financial aid?

STUDENT SUCCESS UPDATE – March Meeting 3/17
Why Who You Represent is Important

- Management, Staff, Faculty & Students all have seats at the table.

- The Community is the only group missing.

- The Community is defined by the entire community not portions of the District or community based organizations.
Act as Community Bridge and Buffer

- You are the official link with the community
- Maintain a broad, externally orientated view
- Understand community needs and values
- Advocate for the district at local, state and federal levels
- Protect the college from inappropriate influence by single interests
Act as a Unit

- As a legal entity, has authority only when meeting together
  - No individual authority

- Uses the collective talents and diversity of skills, ideas and backgrounds to arrive at the best decision

- Support the decision of the majority once the decision is made, avoid trash talk/actions.
Trustee Boards thru policies define the “What” & “Why”.

The Administration (CEO) establishes the “How” policy will be implemented.

College staff are then charged with implementation.

Accountability comes thru Data Collection & Reporting.
The Policy Direction

- Focus on the future and on students
- Adopt mission, vision, and goals as policy
  - Know culture and history of colleges
  - Be aware of community values and needs
- Contribute to, question, act on, and develop policy as a team
- Establish expectations for results
  - Define the difference in the community because of your college
  - Define student success by using standards
Set Policy for District Operations

- Establish & uphold standards of ethics, respect, and prudence (walk the talk)
- Ensure adherence to law and regulation
- Provide direction for CEO/employee decisions and actions
- Frame college procedures thru Policies
  - Fiscal, Human Resources, Academic Affairs, Student Services, etc
Assure Fiscal Health

- Priorities and parameters reflected in policies
- The Budget is a policy document that supports student success
- Be aware of fiscal condition
- Focus on long range viability
- Coordination of campus educational and facilities master plans and maintenance
- Support foundation and fundraising
Establish Standards for Employer-Employee Relations

- Maintain an outstanding CEO/board relationship as a model
- Require that hiring, evaluation, and discipline processes are legal and equitable
- Support professional recognition and growth
- Expect faculty/staff involvement in decision-making
- Interact with staff members appropriately
- Ensure positive climate for collective bargaining
Set Standards for Education

- Expect/adopt an Educational Master Plan
  - Including Student Achievement Standards
- Focus on student success, expect data.
- Ensure college(s) meet or exceed accreditation standards
- Monitor quality using data / scorecard
- Uphold academic freedom and integrity
Assure Performance

- Monitor policy implementation

- Evaluate & hold CEO accountable for institutional performance using data

- Evaluate progress toward goals
  - Establish standards and measures

- Set timelines for monitoring and evaluation
Lead as an Effective Team

- Commit to being part of the board team
- Be aware of issues and trends
  - Allocate sufficient time and funds for learning
- Ask key constructive questions
- Engage in critical thinking and reading
- Act with intelligence, respect, trust, caring and integrity
- Be future oriented & focused on student success
- Be Ethical
4 Questions to Ask Yourself – to help determine ethical behavior (Trustee Handbook page 52)

1. Am I doing to others what I would want done to me?
2. Would I mind seeing what I am doing on the front page of a newspaper?
3. Am I comfortable with members of my family knowing what I am doing?
4. Do I want to encourage employees and students to do this?
Personal Trustee Performance Checklist

- Am I prepared for Board & Committee meetings?
- Do I know and understand the College’s mission and future plans.
- Do my actions and comments serve the entire college district?
- Do I work collaboratively with the CEO and my Board colleagues?
- Do I focus on student success in my decision making?
- Do I listen first? And look for data?
Trusteeship in a Nutshell

You are a member of a lay board, which AS A TEAM
- Establishes the vision and policy direction
- Employs a chief executive as the institutional leader
- Acts as the link to the community
- Establishes the climate in which educational goals are accomplished
- Defines prudent, ethical, and legal parameters for operations in policy
- Evaluates performance and policy implementation, and
- Operates as an effective TEAM
Effective Boards: The Research

- Work together as a team
- Build and maintain trust; avoid destructive conflict
- Are accountable and focused on results
- Act with intelligence, respect and integrity
- Are future-oriented
- Are committed to the college mission and student success
- Evaluate their own performance
The Board is NOT there to DO

- The board determines the WHAT
  - Broad policy goals and outcomes

- The board ensures that the DOING by others. . .
  - Produces the desired outcomes, and
  - Is legal, ethical, and prudent
Your Commitment

- Contribute to the effective functioning of the board

- You are “always” a trustee

- You represent and serve the community at large, the public good

- Be willing to uphold principles of effective and ethical trusteeship
Grab a Paddle!

An empty canoe goes nowhere. It is not until paddlers get in it and together paddle the canoe towards a common destination can it ever reach its’ goal.
Questions / Comments

- What else would you like to know?
- Do you disagree with anything I have said?
