

Personnel - Classified

4424 Supervision of the Classified Service

General supervision of the classified service shall be the responsibility of the Director of Human Resources who shall serve as the District Human Resources Officer at the direction of the Chancellor.

Operating supervision over classified employees shall be the responsibility of the manager who is designated by the Chancellor or President and to whom the classified employee is assigned.