

Students and Student Services

C. Academic Standards

5243 Special Certification for Coursework Completed *

Chabot-Las Positas Community College District will provide for the issuance of "Special Certification for Coursework Completed" to students when there exists a requirement mandated by law or a recognized accrediting or approval agency. Prior approval must be granted by the appropriate dean before certification is authorized. The procedures to obtain special certification are included in the Administrative Rules and Procedures.