

Students and Student Services

F. Rights, Duties and Responsibilities

5513 Student Grievance *

The Administrative Rules and Procedures include the process which enables a student to initiate a grievance alleging violation of college/District policies and procedures. The grievance may be against another student, an instructor, an administrator, or a member of the classified staff.