

Internal Board

B. Board of Trustees Meetings

7011 Closed Sessions

Closed sessions may be held at the discretion of the Board, subject to applicable Education Code and Government Code provisions. Upon appropriate notice, the Chancellor shall be in attendance at closed meetings of the Board unless otherwise directed or unless prohibited by law.

The Board may hold a closed session during a regular or special meeting to consider the following:

1. The appointment, employment, evaluation of performance, discipline, or dismissal of a public employee, or to hear complaints or charges brought against such an employee by another person or employee unless such employee request a public hearing;
2. Real property transactions as described in Government Code section 54956.8;
3. Discussion of pending litigation, as described in Government Code section 54956.9;
4. Discussion with the District's designated representatives regarding salaries, salary schedules and compensation paid in the form of fringe benefits of its representatives and unrepresented employees, and, for represented employees any other matter within the statutorily provided scope of representation, as described in Government Code section 54957.6; or
5. As otherwise provided in the Government Code and the Education Code.

The Board may also exclude from any such public or closed meeting, during the examination of a witness, any or all other witnesses in the matter being investigated by the Board.

Members of a legislative body may not disclose information discussed at a closed session unless specifically authorized by law. The Brown Act imposes formalized penalties on any person who willfully discloses confidential information acquired in a closed session.

Internal Board

B. Board of Trustees Meetings

7011 Closed Sessions

After any closed session, the Board shall reconvene into a public session prior to adjournment and shall make any disclosures required by Government Code section 54957.1 of action taken in the closed session.