1. Chabot College

Co-curricular activities add a necessary dimension to the total educational program of Chabot College. Their conduct requires annual financial support, which is a shared responsibility of the college and the activities. These guidelines provide procedures to be followed in providing required financial support.

A. General

A co-curricular activity is defined as an activity which:

- 1) Is an extended laboratory for an approved and scheduled course of instruction. An extended laboratory is defined as the practicum in which "what is learned" through instruction is put into use through production, performance, or competition, at times extending beyond the limits of the scheduled class periods.
- 2) Holds for the students involved, standards and expectancies for attendance, participation, and achievement in the activity similar to those held for students in regularly scheduled classes.
- 3) Is conducted under the supervision of the instructor of the pertinent course, the Division Dean of the instructional division involved, or the appropriate Vice President.

B. Responsibility

The responsibility for the development and operation of co-curricular activities rests with the appropriate Vice President and Dean. The Vice President is responsible for forwarding approved program and funding recommendations to the President. The Dean is responsible for the preparation and submission of the schedules of events and the annual budget for each activity.

The activity is generally expected to be as self-sufficient as possible and to provide for all other costs as indicated in Section 1)f.

For purposes of funding, three major classifications of co-curricular activities are established:

The College President shall consider and approve all funding requests for the general fund support of co-curricular activities.

College general fund support for co-curricular activities shall be annually requested through the regular division budget development process.

The Division Dean shall prepare an annual budget for the co-curricular activity indicating both anticipated income and expenditures. The Division Dean shall forward proposed budget to the appropriate Vice President for review and approval.
