Chabot-Las Positas Community College District Spring 2021 Classes will continue to be offered online

(Dublin, CA) - In order to expedite the information necessary for students to continue to plan for their education this academic year, and taking into consideration the ever-changing conditions of the COVID-19 pandemic, Chabot-Las Positas Community College District has decided to continue to deliver Spring 2021 courses in online formats, while some courses considered essential by the State, will take place as hybrid classes.

Despite current conditions, both Chabot and Las Positas Colleges remain resilient and continue to provide educational opportunities and support for students to succeed, no matter the medium of delivery. Through the uncertainty surrounding the Fall 2020 and Spring 2021 semesters, Chabot and Las Positas faculty and staff continue to spend countless hours planning to ensure students are provided options to stay safe, stay enrolled, and continue their academic pursuits during these tumultuous times. Spring 2021 classes, like those in the Fall, will be formatted as a mixture of virtual content with scheduled instruction times via an online meeting platform.

In order to ensure students can stay on track and successfully complete their coursework and reach their educational goals, many of our student support services are available online, including:

- Computer Center - Online
- Online Learning Assistance
- Canvas Technical Support
- Online Tutoring
- Student Services
- Student Health Center
- Online Counseling
- Disabled Students Programs and Services
- Library
