

Chabot-Las Positas Community College District For Immediate Release

Media Contact: Guisselle Nunez
(925) 485-5216
gnunez@clpccd.org

Chabot-Las Positas College Community College Hires New Vice Chancellor of Educational Services and Student Success

Dr. Theresa Fleischer Rowland began tenure on June 3

(Dublin, CA) - Chabot-Las Positas Community College District (CLPCCD) has announced the hiring of Dr. Theresa Fleischer Rowland as Vice Chancellor of Educational Services and Student Success.

Dr. Fleischer Rowland is a lifelong educator providing leadership, vision and strategic direction to develop college pathways to degrees and meaningful careers for California's community college students. She has a proven track record in education with a career spanning more than 30 years in community college, K12, and university work. She brings experience as a teacher, tutor, advisor, case manager, job developer, community college counselor and administrator to the role.

Prior to her role at CLPCCD, Dr. Fleischer Rowland served as Associate Vice Chancellor of Instruction at City College of San Francisco, an institution serving approximately 65,000 students. Additionally, she spent six years with the Foundation for California Community Colleges/Career Ladders Project as senior director and worked to improve state policy and student success impact through large-scale community college initiatives.

Throughout her career, Dr. Fleischer Rowland has held the positions of adjunct counselor at Pasadena City College, assistant director at Long Beach City College, executive director at Foothill College, vice president at De Anza College, counseling faculty at San Diego Mesa and City Colleges and K12 teacher before obtaining her master's degree.

Dr. Fleischer Rowland holds a doctorate in educational leadership from the University of Southern California (USC), master's degree in counselor education from San Diego State University and a bachelor's degree from USC. A resident of Pleasanton since 2005, Dr. Fleischer Rowland is an active East Bay community volunteer with several nonprofit organizations supporting increased quality of life for adults with disabilities, low-income families and cancer survivors.

She has one son attending University of California Santa Cruz and one son who was recently commissioned in the United States Air Force.

About Chabot-Las Positas Community College District

CLPCCD serves 29,000 students annually, in the San Francisco East Bay Area, particularly southern Alameda County, through its two colleges: Chabot College in Hayward and Las Positas College in Livermore. CLPCCD is governed by a seven-member board of trustees which is responsible for all policy decisions. Board members are elected from trustee areas by the registered voters of nine communities: Castro Valley, Dublin, Hayward, Livermore, Pleasanton, San Leandro, San Lorenzo, Sunol, and Union City.

-CLPCCD-