Las Positas College to Host Mixer in Celebration of Veterans First

(Livermore, CA) - Las Positas College will host a mixer in celebration of Veterans First, a new Mentoring Veteran program, Thursday, January 23, 5-7 pm on campus in Building 2400, Room 2401: Tutorial Center.

The mixer launches the Spring 2020 Mentoring Veterans Program by bringing together community mentors, student veteran and peer mentors, and prospective student mentees.

The event will begin with a presentation of colors and national anthem, followed by an interactive networking exercise for student veterans to meet other students and community leaders. Veterans service organizations will be recognized for support and sponsorship of LPC's 2019 Veterans Day 2.2 for 22 Challenge Walk and Sean Brock Foundation 5K Run. The event will conclude with a prestigious presentation from the Quilt of Valor Foundation of a quilt to a student veteran.

Veterans service organizations who sponsored the 2019 Veterans Day 2.2 for 22 Challenge Walk and 5K Run include Sean Brock Foundation, LPC Foundation, Chabot Federal Credit Union, Jamba Juice/Carl's Jr/Pieology, Knights of Columbus - Livermore, Gene's Fine Foods, Sentinels of Freedom, Blue Star Moms Danville, California Cattlemen Association (Alameda/Contra Costa), Some Gave All Graves Foundation, Warriors Watch Riders, Pleasanton Military Families, Denco Promotions, Gladden Equipment Erectors, Association of the United States Army, Viet Nam Veterans Diablo Valley, Rotary Club of Livermore, Alliance of Therapy Dogs, Thump Whistle, HITT Factory, VFW - Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U.S., Ising's Culligan, Trilogy at the Vineyards Veterans Association, and Team RWB.
