Media Advisory

All classes at Chabot College in Hayward and Las Positas College in Livermore are being cancelled effective immediately

All classes at Chabot College in Hayward and Las Positas College in Livermore are being cancelled effective immediately as regional air quality conditions have not improved as anticipated.

All college and district offices are closed today Thursday, November 15, 2018, except for LPC Middle College, and essential operations such as security/police and critical IT operations. Other personnel may be required to perform essential functions, and they will be notified by their supervisor.

Air quality will be monitored and decisions on any further action, including the status for Friday, November 16, 2018 will be forthcoming.
