BACKGROUND INFORMATION -

I. Chabot College Dual Enrollment: Putting the College in the Community__]

The Chabot Dual Enrollment Program provides the opportunity for High School and Adult School GED/Diploma students to take Chabot College courses completely free, without paying tuition or student fees. The goals of Dual Enrollment are to increase access to college coursework for historically underrepresented groups in higher education, reduce the overall cost of college, reduce time to degree, and expose students to careers.

II. SoCal College Trip: Exploring the Future__

Over 30 students pushed the Rest and Relaxation trope of Spring Break away and ventured to Southern California. There they explored 4-year universities, asked questions, took tours - all in the hunt of finding places where they could individually thrive! They are excited to share with you, the adventures in learning while on their Southern California College Trip.
