Background: Alameda County Social Services Agency's Department of Children and Family Services has contracted with Chabot-Las Positas Community College District's Economic Development department to provide training to people serving children in out of home placement of Alameda County since 2002.

As with the previous contracts, the District will partner with community-based organizations that serve foster and adoptive care children to provide the required training. Subcontractors will include A Better Way; Alternative Family Services; Bay Area Youth Center; Catholic Charities; UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital, Oakland; East Bay Agency for Children; Family Paths; First Place for Youth; Fred Finch Youth Center; Lincoln; Seneca Family of Services; Sunny Hills; WestCoast Children's Clinic; and outside vendors. Additionally, Alameda County's Social Services Agency will utilize this resource for their employees' training.

This contract is in the amount of $6,000,000 for the period of July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019. The master contract was established in April 2002. The most recent prior renewal was on 8/15/17, Board item 7.2.

One of the requirements for this program is in-kind cost-sharing, or "match." The District's match is based on a formula that takes into consideration the district's staffing and facilities to support the work of the Economic Development and Contract Education Department, as well as a portion of the district-wide costs for provision of business services. All direct expenses of providing the trainings are covered by the contract funds.

Under the terms of this contract, we are required to create and implement contracts with subcontracting agencies and vendors to deliver services as required. There is a standard contract format utilized with the vendors, sample attached.
