3.0 PRESENTATION: END-OF-YEAR RECONGITIONS-STUDENT/PROGRAMS

A) CHABOT COLLEGE

President Sperling stated it is a pleasure to have the opportunity to present some of our students and programs. She stated this evening they chose to do something a little different from their past presentations featuring students and program success. She stated Chabot college is an inter-linked community that connect students and their families both inside the college and out into our communities. She stated during the pandemic, it has been a number of key affinity communities that have kept all of us together and closely linked with our students. She stated she presents these to the Board this evening with complete admiration and gratitude for the work that they have done over this extraordinary period. She acknowledged Ms. Kirti Reddy for offering the concept of the presentation and working tirelessly on putting everything together.

VP Kritscher stated Chabot Employee Associations are more than employee organizations of infinity groups, they are community and families within the college. He stated communities that partner with the students and with each other and with the college at large in providing collective and collaborative leadership to a large variety of community building programs, events and activities. He stated the community connected events and activities make up a large part of who Chabot college is.
