CLPCCD Chancellor Search Ends With No Candidate Selected

(Dublin, CA) - At its meeting last night, the Chabot-Las Positas Community College District Board of Trustees interviewed three final candidates for the position of Chancellor.

After completion of the interviews, the Board did not choose a candidate.

Working with search consultants and a district-wide search committee comprised of faculty, staff, students and community members, the Board conducted a national search for candidates.

Interim Chancellor Thomas Fallo said, "The Board of Trustees and I will continue to work closely to determine the next steps as we continue our search for a permanent chancellor to lead our district."

About Chabot-Las Positas Community College District

CLPCCD serves 29,000 students annually, in the San Francisco East Bay Area, particularly southern Alameda County, through its two colleges: Chabot College in Hayward and Las Positas College in Livermore. CLPCCD is governed by a seven-member board of trustees which is responsible for all policy decisions. Board members are elected from trustee areas by the registered voters of nine communities: Castro Valley, Dublin, Hayward, Livermore, Pleasanton, San Leandro, San Lorenzo, Sunol, and Union City.
