

Las Positas College Announces New Hawk Day - An Orientation Event for High School Seniors Transitioning to LPC

(Livermore, CA) - Las Positas College (LPC) announces New Hawk Day, an interactive virtual orientation that will inform and connect high school seniors who are transitioning to LPC with support services to facilitate a successful first year of college.

Who: First time college students - those coming directly from high school

What: New Hawk Day - Interactive, virtual orientation event

When: Wednesday, June 23, 2021, 8:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Where: Zoom Video Conferencing

Space is limited! Click here to reserve your spot now!

New Hawk Day orientation includes:

- Information on choosing a major, course selection, academic planning and program requirements
- Enrolling into fall classes
- Workshops and presentations on LPC Student Services, such as Financial aid and Special Programs
- Presentations for parents/guardians
- Participation in the entirety of your orientation will help you to have a successful start at LPC and will complete your matriculation steps for priority registration

Reasons to attend New Hawk Day:

- College transitions will be smoother. Knowledge is power, learn all about LPC and what we have to offer.
- Gain the ability to make an informed decision about your future. Students will meet with a counselor and be provided with a first year educational plan.
- Get connected to campus resources and support services.
- Engage in networking opportunities while learning about programs and activities that will support your academic, career, and social interest.
