Las Positas College 30th Annual Commencement Ceremony Postponed

(Livermore, CA) - Las Positas College's 30th Annual Commencement Ceremony is being postponed in light of current events. Las Positas College anticipates hosting a Commencement ceremony sometime in Fall 2020 (date and time to be determined) or inviting this year's graduates to participate in next year's Commencement ceremony in May 2021. Visit the Las Positas College Commencement webpage for the latest information.

"Although the in-person commencement ceremony is being postponed to a later date, Las Positas College graduates deserve to be honored and celebrated now," said Dr. Dyrell Foster, LPC President. "Our students have shown tremendous determination to persevere through these uncertain times to achieve their goals. They have my deepest respect and admiration for staying true to their values and for their commitment to achieve success."

To recognize the Las Positas College Class of 2020, LPC created a special webpage to highlight graduates photos. The webpage also includes congratulatory speeches, special messages, and helpful links.
