Linda Granger and Genevieve Randolph Elected to Chabot-Las Positas Community College District Board of Trustees Two incumbents retain seats

(Dublin, CA) - Linda Granger and Genevieve Randolph were elected to the Chabot-Las Positas Community College District Board of Trustees last night, earning 77.74 and 69.69 percent of the vote, respectively. Two incumbent trustees were re-elected.

Donald L. "Dobie" Gelles, representing Area 4, was re-elected. Trustee Gelles has served on the Board since 1998.

Hal G. Gin, representing Area 6, was also re-elected. Trustee Gin has served on the Board since 2005.

Ms. Granger was elected to her first term as a CLPCCD Trustee in Area 2, representing the City of San Leandro. She replaces outgoing Trustee Isobel Dvorsky, who served on the board since 1985 and will attend her final meeting on Tuesday, November 13.

Ms. Granger has a long history within the San Leandro school system, currently serving as the superintendent for the Eden Area Regional Occupational Program. She previously taught and held the position of principal at San Leandro High School and served as a site and district administrator.

She holds a master's degree in econometrics and quantitative economics from California State University-East Bay and a bachelor's degree in business administration and management from Boston College.

Ms. Randolph was elected to her first term serving Area 3, which encompasses Union City and South Hayward, having previously been appointed to the Board in 2017. She serves as the assistant superintendent of human resources and administrative services at the Belmont-Redwood Shores School District and has been an active member of the East Bay and education communities through membership in various service organizations.

She has a master's degree in education leadership from the University of San Francisco and a bachelor of science degree in business management from Marymount Manhattan College.
