Tri-Valley Career Center Operating Virtually to Help Job Seekers

(Dublin, CA) - The stay-at-home order is isolating for everyone, especially those in the market for a new job. The Tri-Valley Career Center (TVCC) offers virtual help to job seekers who were looking for work prior to the COVID-19 crisis, and those who have lost their jobs due to the crisis.

TVCC, a service of the Chabot-Las Positas Community College District, is working hard to offer career services through online options. Resources for job seekers and small businesses can be found on the Career Center website, including unemployment information, Covered California, the small business development center and more.

TVCC staff members are working diligently to offer live virtual support during this time of crisis and unprecedented unemployment claims, detailed below.

- Career Counselors are offering a system of crisis support for job seekers. Call (925) 560-9431 and leave a message or email tvcc@clpccd.org.
- Job search strategy workshops and the popular TVCC Job Club are being offered via Zoom, including a new workshop specifically addressing resource options and searching for a job during the current crisis. Holtzclaw encourages job seekers to continue to check their website and to sign-up for the TVCC newsletters for updated information.
